NARRATIVE:

Mark Brown has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 27. His convictions include rape, multiple assaults, multiple thefts, prisoner in possession of a weapon, possession of a stolen firearm, shoplifting, possession of controlled substances, petty theft with prior convictions, violations of parole, violations of probation, burglary, failure to register as a sex offender, disorderly conduct and obstruction of a peace officer. He has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being a 4 year term for prisoner in possession of a weapon. Brown was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on April 29, 2015. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in August 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Brown qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for petty theft with prior convictions is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
